2. G.O.Ms.No14 of Dept for WCD &SC(ICDS. A1) dated :28-3-2011 prescribing online submission of tour diaries by officers of Department for WCD&SC.

ORDER:

As per reports received, District Collectors of Krishna, Khammam, Medak and Vizianagaram have prescribed a regular and periodic visits to Anganwadi Centres among other institutions, by Special Officers of Mandals along with mandal level team, which has yielded good results.

2. Government, with a view to achieve univerlisation with quality under ICDS, hereby request all the District Collectors to similarly appoint Special Officers for each Mandal apart from authorizing other District Level Officers to visit Anganwadi Centres and other institutions even during their tours in their district. To ensure effective follow up thereon, for ultimately bringing about the desired improvements in maternal, child health and survival with lifelong benefits to concerned stake holders, further action may be taken as follows:-

- i. The Special Officers/Authorized Officers should access "e-sadhana" at <http://wcdsc.ap.nic.in> and then click on the link "Visit to AWCs/institutions".
- ii. They should first register themselves and await confirmation, to avoid unauthorized usage.
- iii. They can then enter their findings and observations of such visits to the AWCs/Institutions, as the case may be.
- iv. The 'Weak' and 'Vulnerable' AWCs under each project/mandal have been identified and indicated in the main page itself, which must be visited frequently and on priority by the Special Officers/Authorised Officers.
- v. The officers/personnel concerned of this Department for Women, Children, Disabled &Senior Citizens are provided the facility to view such findings for further follow-up action, apart from the same being taken into consideration for Performance Appraisal, other incentives etc.

3. All the District Collectors, Commissioner, Women Development & Child Welfare and Officers concerned shall take further action accordingly.
